The Italian peninsula was for a long time part of the Holy Roman Empire until the 13th century. Since then new small states under rich patrons started to emerge. During the 15th century Italy was consisted of many states hostile to each other. The outcome of this situation was almost constant war. It was the rivalry between Charles V (Emperor of the Holy Roman Empire and the King of Spain) and Francis I (the King of France) which in many times triggered these wars....
