

Temptations Behind Stained Glass (Paperback)

By Richard Crangle

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2015. Paperback.
 Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Almost every temptation that every person has faced is faced by the monks within the stone walls of St. Invictus Abbey. Promises of health, wealth, and well-being to taste love, real romance, and happiness are broken by the invasions of the seven deadly sins and their malevolent henchmen; they plunder and pillage our lives. St. Invictus Abbey is being ravaged and it lays in various stages of ruin. The daily chants within the Abbey become the background noise muffling the Sirens songs promising an eternal past and future immortality. Similarly, we use past sights, sounds, and future expectations to insulate, and then isolate ourselves. Our shared legacies of fear, dysfunction and tragedy war against the endless possibilities to live a life, as Shakespeare offered, that is melodious, lucid, poised, and whole. We, along with the monks, wage our own wars and must decide which path must die in order for another path to live. Our guiding ideas that arise from our shared history haunt several monks residing at St. Invictus Abbey and include the equivalent horrors...
