

Ithamer and Other Poems

By Sharon Hunt

Shoal Creek, L.C. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 48 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Ithamer Sprague was a notorious practical joker during the early settlement of southwestern Utah. In one of his practical jokes, he tricked an entire town into believing that there was a bigfoot roaming nearby. One of his friends, Hans Peter, was in on the joke. Hans Peters granddaughter, Sharon Hunt, retells the story that was passed down from her grandfather in the poem Ithamer of the Big Feet. Another poem recounts what really happened when a tough cowboy tried to bully a Native American in the wild western town of Pioche, Nevada. These poems and many others remember nostalgic pioneer days and celebrate the humor, values and sentimentality of past times. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
