BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 22 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed the Department of Defense's (DOD) efforts to establish a new management structure and make changes to its major weapons acquisition systems, focusing on: (1) DOD progress in implementing a presidential advisory commission's recommendations to establish clear accountability over its weapons acquisitions and provide unambiguous authority over its acquisition programs; and (2) related DOD initiatives that address the government's and defense industry's relationship. GAO found that: (1) DOD established clear channels of command by reducing the number of management levels in its acquisition system and creating an Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition position; (2) the newly established acquisition structure streamlined and centralized acquisition processes and reduced some formal reporting requirements; (3) DOD began a process for projecting its future spending by using more realistic funding assumptions; (4) DOD did not fully implement its acquisition workforce reduction plans; (5) DOD began implementing the Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act, which is intended to improve the quality of the acquisition workforce; (6) the change in national security threats reduces the DOD justification for concurrent development and...
