

Hope Restored: The Fork in the Road, Following a Traumatic Brain Injury (Paperback)

By Faye Nunnelee Byrd

WestBow Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Faye writes from her personal perception using her thoughts, feelings, and observations as she struggled with the personality and behavior changes following a traumatic brain injury. She related to this time a walking through Shadowland, a place of ashes. Faye tells how her hope was restored by a personal word from God, which allowed her to accept her new personality and the changed behavior, allowing her to take the new road map for her life, forging ahead with courage, because she is a survivor and knows that the journey is worth taking. Faye lives in Mobile, Alabama. She is a 1980 graduate of Troy University School of Nursing, Montgomery Campus. She is a member of the Mobile Writers Guild, the Alabama State Poetry Society, and a former member of the National Associate of American Pen Women, Mobile Branch, as Letters, serving several times as the chapter s chaplain. Faye has been published in The Journal of Christian Nursing, several anthologies, and different newsletters pertaining to Traumatic Brain Injury and relating emotional problems. She is a guest writer...

READ ONLINE
[ 7.89 MB ]

Reviews

It in one of the most popular publication. It really is writer in easy words and not difficult to understand. You are going to like how the author write this book.

-- Prof. Evans Balistreri DDS

Completely essential go through book. This is for all who statte there had not been a worthy of reading through. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Lydia Legros