Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Father God placed a love for His word in my heart at a very early age. Many scriptures have upheld me in dark times, as well as in times of joy. One of the most precious scriptures to me is Matthew 23:9, And do not call anyone on earth your father, for One is your Father, He who is in heaven. With this verse, my Father, God, wrote into my heart the truth of who I am in Him, the truth of His love and blessing for my life and of the reality that God is my Father. I am not to call anyone on earth Father, but only my Father who is in heaven. I realize that we all have biological fathers, and in this I am no different than anyone else. But my Father God wanted me to know in the core of my being that He is my Father, and that He would direct my life from my first breath on this earth. One other key verse is John 1:1-5, In the beginning was...
