Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from In Northern India, Vol. 9: A Story of Mission Work in Zenanas, Hospitals, Schools, and Villages Having for many years worked with Mr. Cavalier, on behalf of India, and having with him recently visited our Mission Stations in Bombay, the Punjab and North West Provinces, it is a real pleasure to accede to the request that I should write a short introduction to his book, giving an account of that tour. It was with the deepest interest that I revisited the wonderful and vast land of India, 26 years having elapsed since my previous visit. I know that, however carefully anyone may study, at a distance, the problems to be solved in the conduct of Missions, it is quite a different matter to face them on the spot. I was greatly impressed with the remarkable growth and development in every branch of Christian effort. In many ways it seemed to be a new land. In these notes I will refer mainly to the work among women and girls, every section of which shows most vigorous...
