His talents and influence were highly appreciated; perhaps no one ever had more influence in that body, or was more respected by all parties. He continued in the Senate three years, when, the duties of the station becoming too arduous for his health, which had been materially injured by his exertions, he resigned his seat, and did not again enter public life. Mr. Gore belonged to most of the literary and benevolent institutions in our community. He was early elected a member of the American Academy, and was President of the Massachusetts Historical Society from 1806 to 1818. To each of these societies he bequeathed a valuable legacy. In 1816 he was chosen President of the Evangelical Missionary Society in Massachusetts, but resigned the office the following year, on account of ill health. He was a member of the Middlesex Bible Society and of the Massachusetts Peace Society. He was for several years a vigilant and highly useful Fellow of Harvard College, from which Institution he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws, in 1809. And as a proof of his attachment to this seminary, and his desire to aid the cause of science and learning, he made the Corporation of the College his residuary legatee. The peculiar value of this bequest is its being free from all conditions, being left to the sole direction of the governors of the College, to appropriate it as they shall deem best for the promotion of its truest interests; an example which it is hoped others will imitate,...
