

How to Find Out Anything: From Extreme Google Searches to Scouring Government Documents, a Guide to Uncovering Anything about Everyone and Everything

By Don Macleod

Prentice Hall Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 272 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.8in. In How to Find Out Anything, master researcher Don MacLeod explains how to find what you're looking for quickly, efficiently, and accurately and how to avoid the most common mistakes of the Google Age. Not your average research book, How to Find Out Anything shows you how to unveil nearly anything about anyone. From top CEOs salaries to police records, you'll learn little-known tricks for discovering the exact information you're looking for. You'll learn: How to really tap the power of Google, and why Google is the best place to start a search, but never the best place to finish it. The scoop on vast, yet little-known online resources that search engines cannot scour, such as refdesk. com, ipl. org, the University of Michigan Documents Center, and Project Gutenberg, among many others. How to access free government resources (and put your tax dollars to good use). How to find experts and other people with special knowledge. How to dig up seemingly confidential information on people and businesses, from public and private companies to non-profits and international companies. Whether researching for a term paper or digging up...
