FROM COMPETITION AT HOME TO COMPETING ABROAD: A CASE STUDY OF INDIA'S HORTICULTURE

Oxford University Press, New Delhi, India, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. First Edition. India has a large agricultural base. Yet its share in global agriculture exports is insignificant and its domestic market is increasingly protected. In global trade negotiations, India's efforts have been directed more towards retaining the right to protect than towards eliminating distortions at home and abroad. This report addresses the dilemma by studying the horticulture sector, one of the most dynamic segments of Indian agriculture and international...
