Yes; but I do not recall just what those items were. But there is an improvement account as between the navigation company and the Central Railroad of New Jersey on which, in addition to that rental, 7 per cent is paid. Now, whether the items going into that were accumulated prior to that or before, I do not know. I should be glad to tell you that, but I do not know. It is my recollection--I do not say this positively one way or the other--that those items practically Mere entirely made up subsequent to that time. The Chairman. But you are not sure Mr. Warrixer. I am not sure. The Chairman. Have you a copy of your lease that you could furnish the committee without inconvenience Mr. Warrixer. I shall be very glad to, sir. The Chairman. You probably have a printed copy; and could you, after you go home, send us a written statement answering this question which I asked you specifically Mr. Warriner. As to what those items are The Chairman. As to what the items were. Mr. Warrixer. I shall be very glad to; yes. The Chairman. Will you not please furnish us, at the same time that you furnish the other information asked for, a complete statement of the annual amount paid as rental for this railroad property from the time the lease was first made (A letter from Mr. Warriner transmitting information above requested is here printed in full,...
