By Brigitte Dehmelt Cooper

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 147 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .IS GOD DEAD? Plato - the Prophet for the Gentiles is a written defense of metaphysical reality, which proves why God is real, and that the human intelligence is aware that the knowing of distinctions precedes thinking through the simultaneous intelligibility for intelligence that permeates the universe, called Heaven and Nature ! 400 years before Jesus Christ was born, the philosopher Plato, devoted his life to understanding and rationalizing Socrates demand to know thyself , by analyzing recognized real objects , known as timeless, and thus, eternal distinctions. They have their stand immediately in the mind, a fact that St. Augustine later called, the Confrontation Theory of Knowing, which he distinguished from the active theory of sense perceptions, that is intended and comparing, called thinking. Plato - the Prophet for the Gentiles guides the reader through the meaning and the distinctions of Plato s teaching, establishing universal, absolute truths, thereby affirming the objective quality of God as the Creator of Nature which is rooted in the quality of His Self-movement , the auto-kinesis called psyche , disproving Aristotle s...
